

CALL FOR PROPOSALS FOR GEORGIA

Deadline to submit proposals: August 12, 2015

The Global Partnership for Social Accountability (GPSA) supports civil society and governments to work together to solve critical governance challenges in developing countries. To achieve this objective, the GPSA provides strategic and sustained support to CSOs' social accountability initiatives aimed at strengthening transparency and accountability. It builds on the World Bank's direct and ongoing engagement with public sector actors, as well as a network of Global Partner organizations, to create an enabling environment in which citizen feedback is used to solve fundamental problems in service delivery and to strengthen the performance of public institutions. Through a country-tailored approach, GPSA-supported activities are implemented in sectors where the World Bank has a strong involvement and can help governments respond to citizen feedback.

The GPSA works to "close the loop" by supporting citizens to have a more articulated voice, helping governments to listen, and assisting government agencies to act upon the feedback they receive.

The GPSA is pleased to announce its 3rd Global Call for Proposals. In Georgia, the GPSA seeks proposals for Social Accountability initiatives and programs from Civil Society Organizations to address the following:

- ⇒ Increase effectiveness of municipal services, including the planning and implementation of the Municipal Budget and pre-school education services, which includes observing the alignment and incorporation of respective Central Government Action Plans in Municipal Planning and budgeting process with particular emphasis on child protection and disability issues among others. The information produced will be used by the Local Governments to improve resource allocation and service delivery, by the Central Government to consider future policies and reforms, and to strengthen cooperation and coordination among local and central government agencies in respective areas

Following the GPSA's approach, it is expected that the information produced will also be used by other public sector institutions beyond the Executive, including Supreme Audit Institutions, legislative bodies, independent regulatory agencies, and other oversight bodies.

In order to be considered, proposals must demonstrate clearly that:

1. The project will promote interventions that may be replicated country-wide;
2. The proposed intervention complements ongoing activities supported in the framework of the Phase 1 of the River Bank Improvement Project.
3. The project will generate information that is needed to complement existing processes already supported by relevant public institutions.

GPSA supports proposals that:

- Have an estimated duration of 3 to 5 years, in order to enable sustained and strategic funding for Social Accountability;
