

CALL FOR PROPOSALS FOR MALI

Deadline to submit proposals: August 12, 2015

The Global Partnership for Social Accountability (GPSA) supports civil society and governments to work together to solve critical governance challenges in developing countries. To achieve this objective, the GPSA provides strategic and sustained support to CSOs' social accountability initiatives aimed at strengthening transparency and accountability. It builds on the World Bank's direct and ongoing engagement with public sector actors, as well as a network of Global Partner organizations, to create an enabling environment in which citizen feedback is used to solve fundamental problems in service delivery and to strengthen the performance of public institutions. Through a country-tailored approach, GPSA-supported activities are implemented in sectors where the World Bank has a strong involvement and can help governments respond to citizen feedback.

The GPSA works to "close the loop" by supporting citizens to have a more articulated voice, helping governments to listen, and assisting government agencies to act upon the feedback they receive.

The GPSA is pleased to announce its 3rd Global Call for Proposals. In Mali the GPSA seeks proposals for Social Accountability initiatives and programs from Civil Society Organizations to address one or all of the following:

- ⇒ Monitor the formulation and implementation of the State budget, particularly at the local level. The information produced will be used by the Ministry of Economy and Finance to improve budget management and implementation at national and subnational levels.
- ⇒ Monitor Early Childhood and Primary Education services, with special emphasis on vulnerable groups such as girls and the poor. The information produced will be used by the Ministry of Education to improve service delivery and to design corrective measures to improve access to education of vulnerable groups: girls and the poor
- ⇒ Monitor the resettlements of population related to the construction of water infrastructure to improve the quality of water service in Bamako. The information produced will be used by the Société Malienne de Patrimoine de l'Eau Potable and the Government to ensure a transparent process of resettlements.
- ⇒ Monitor the implementation of the standard of the Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative by the Government and extractive companies and actively engage in fostering accountability in order to improve transparency and ensure efficient allocation of resources in the sector. The information produced will be used by the Government to monitor and improve transparency and accountability in the extractive industry.
- ⇒ Institutional strengthening activities and capacity-building through a "learning-by-doing" approach that will result in the CSO's increased capacity to implement social accountability.

Following the GPSA's approach, it is expected that the information produced will also be used by other public sector institutions beyond the Executive, including Supreme Audit Institutions, legislative bodies, independent regulatory agencies, and other oversight bodies.

In order to be considered, proposals must demonstrate clearly that:

1. The project will push the boundaries from pilots to large-scale interventions that may be replicated country-wide;

2. The proposed intervention is related to ongoing initiatives focusing on similar objectives. It should identify the value added of GPSA support;
3. It proposes clear mentoring and partnership with other CSOs (local and national) and community-based organizations; and
4. The project will generate information that is needed to complement existing processes already supported by relevant public institutions.

GPSA supports proposals that:

- Have an estimated duration of 3 to 5 years, in order to enable sustained and strategic funding for Social Accountability;
